Theft from pokies patron in Castlemaine

Victoria Police on Tuesday, 20/06/2017 19:06 AEST

Castlemaine Police are investigating a theft from a patron at a Castlemaine hotel.

Investigators have been told that the victim was playing the poker machines and left his backpack nearby on a ledge in the hotel but briefly left it unattended.

When he returned shortly after at about 8.40pm on 15 March, his backpack was gone.

It appears that a man who was playing a poker machine to the left of the victim noticed that the bag was left unattended and moved it to the floor while he continued to play his machine.

The man who left the hotel with the bag is perceived to be of Caucasian appearance, aged in his 20s, with dark hair and tattoos on his right forearm.

Vehicle stolen during test drive

South Australia Police on Tuesday, 20/06/2017 11:50 AEST

Holden Hill Police are investigating the theft of a vehicle taken for a test drive last night (19 June).

About 10.15pm two men attended a Hope Valley address to look at a vehicle which was being offered for sale.

One man took the vehicle for a test drive and did not return, while the other man left in a white sedan with number plates that police suspect were false.

The stolen vehicle is a 2004 silver Jeep Grand Cherokee (SA registration XFJ814).

Anyone who sees this vehicle is urged to call police immediately on 131 444.

Private sellers can protect themselves by taking the following steps:

1. Always check the driver's licence of any potential buyer to make sure they are who they say they are.
2. Take a copy or photo of the potential buyer's driver's licence to record the details.
3. Have a friend or family member with you when the vehicle is being inspected, and to accompany you on a test drive.
4. Do not leave the vehicle unattended at any time.
5. If at any stage of the inspection or test drive you feel uncomfortable, immediately end the meeting.

It is also recommended that you arrange a test drive in daylight hours; don't include your address in the advertisement and if confronted remember your personal safety is paramount.

Police call for witnesses to CBD assault

Victoria Police on Monday, 19/06/2017 20:12 AEST

Melbourne Crime Investigation Unit detectives are appealing for witnesses following an assault in Melbourne last month.

The incident happened at the corner of A'Beckett and Swanston streets on Friday 5 May at 7.40pm when a man was seen abusing three women on the footpath.

The victim, a 43-year-old Ringwood man, went to the aid of the women and was assaulted by the man, receiving several punches to the face and head.

The victim sustained bruising and grazes in the attack.

The women and the man had left the scene by the time police arrived.
